INSURANCE:
Accidental death and dismemberment coverage is provided according to schedule and with a maximum principal sum of $1,000; medical expense coverage is provided with a maximum of $50,000. Claims up to $250 per claim will be paid on the primary basis, without regard to any coverage parents might have. Claims exceeding $250 per claim will be paid on the excess basis, meaning that family or employer group coverage must pay its maximum first. This refers to medical expenses incurred because of injury sustained during scheduled and supervised camp activities. Hernias are not covered. The contracting of illness or disease by camper is not covered under this plan. Payment for medication and/or hospitalization needed by camper as a result of illness or disease is the responsibility of the camper and his/her parents. Any additional coverage desired will also be the responsibility of his/her parents.

CAIMING XIE - HEAD COACH:
Three time Big East Diving Coach of the Year (1999, 2004, 2005), Caiming Xie has completed his eleventh year as the Notre Dame men’s and women’s head diving coach after spending three seasons as the head diving coach at the University of Toledo. Caiming is the first full-time diving coach in Notre Dame history. Caiming built off the success of the Notre Dame Diving program and coached two All-American divers, Heather Mattingly and Meghan Perry-Eaton. Meghan Perry-Eaton, five time Big East title winner and three time Big East Diver of the Year (2003, 2004, 2005), also placed 3rd in 2004 and 5th in the 2005 NCAA Championships, the highest ever NCAA finish in Notre Dame diving history.

While at Toledo, Caiming earned Mid-American Conference Diving Coach of the Year laurels in each of his last two seasons. Prior to his stint with the Rockets, Caiming, as assistant coach, coached one season for perennial BIG EAST power Pittsburgh.

Caiming, who served as the 1980 Chinese Olympic diving coach, comes to the Notre Dame program with a wealth of international experience. He served as the US Diving Technical Consultant and is a member of the US Diving Technical Committee. Caiming has attended the US Diving National Team Training Camp many times. He is a very highly regarded coach. Caiming also holds diving clinics and presentations to US Diving Junior and Senior coaches.

As an athlete, Caiming won first place in the springboard competition at the seventh Asian Games in 1974. He earned first place in the platform and second in the springboard competition at the three National Games of China in 1975 and has won numerous Chinese diving championships. Caiming is a 1985 graduate of the Beijing Institute of Physical Education.

U.S. DIVING OR AAU DIVING MEMBERSHIP:
To attend Diving Camp at the University of Notre Dame, it will be necessary for you to become a member of U.S. Diving or AAU Diving. When your application is received, we will send a U.S. Diving application for you to fill out and return to us at the Camp Office. If you are currently an active member of U.S. Diving or AAU Diving, please include your membership number on the front of this application.

Do not hesitate to contact us at the Camp Office if you have immediate questions with regard to the above.

The University of Notre Dame Rolfs Aquatic Center is one of the finest aquatic facilities in this region of Indiana. The Aquatic Center features a diving well with three 1-meter springboards and two 3-meter springboards. Training will occur on land as well as in the water. Proper instruction and supervision will be given in the use of mats, a trampoline, a dry-land springboard with overhead spotting equipment, a port-a-pit, and in-water, 1-meter, overhead spotting belts.
